Clerk Hanlon Reminds Mail-In Ballot Voters of Monmouth County's Enhanced BallotTrax Notification System

FREEHOLD, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is reminding Monmouth County voters who choose to vote by mail in the 2024 General Election that they can sign up for the County's enhanced ballot tracking notification system. The County's ballot tracking system, BallotTrax, was launched four years ago by Clerk Hanlon and the Monmouth County Board of Elections to notify voters regarding the status of their mail-in ballots.

Voters who sign up for Monmouth County BallotTrax will receive alerts when their ballot has been received by the County Board of Elections as well as after the ballot has been counted. Users of this free service can opt to enable notifications by text message, phone or email. Monmouth County residents can sign up to receive BallotTrax notifications at MonmouthCountyBallotTrax.com.

“BallotTrax helps to provide transparency in our elections process which is so important,” said Clerk Hanlon. “Monmouth County's election officials are proud to offer this free, enhanced notification service to our residents, the first county in New Jersey to do so.”

BallotTrax alerts voters of the status of their ballots rather than requiring voters to continually log into the system for updates. Voters can also check the status of their ballots via New Jersey's ballot tracking system by visiting
